

Mrs. Eula Mae Prince was born on January 22, 1920, to the parentage of the late Mattie Reddick Sampson and the late Oscar Sampson. On October 2, 1937, she married the late Albert Prince, Sr. and to this union sixteen children were born. They were happily married for 65 years until his passing on March 28, 2003.

Along with her husband, four children: Master Ronnie Prince, Willie Lee Prince, Albert Prince, Jr. and Oscar Lee Prince, Sr.; two brothers: Ennie Sampson and David Sampson, and four sisters: Ossie Coleman, Annie Edge, Crema Dale Sampson Brown, and Ola Bell Harris, precede her in death.

She was known by friends and family as “Moe.” She enjoyed being a homemaker, attending her Christian meetings, and participating in the field ministry in the name of Jehovah God. In her adult life, she became a baptized member of the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah’s Witnesses, where she served faithfully until her health declined. She has been a faithful servant of Jehovah God for 38 years. Most of her life was surrounded by caring for her children and guiding them to become law abiding citizens. As her health declined, she spent the remainder of her years being cared for by her children with the assistance of healthcare aides and nurses.

She leaves to cherish her memories five sons: Mr. Johnnie Prince of Belle Glade, FL; Mr. Sampson Prince of Ideal, GA; Mr. David (Mary) Prince, Mr. Ernest (Barbara Jean) Prince, and Mr. James Prince, Sr., all of Americus, GA; seven daughters: Mrs. Betty Sue (Anno, Sr.) Harris, Mrs. Retha (John) Dowdell, Mrs. DeLois (Rev. Karl, Sr.) Wilson, Ms. Dorothy Jean Queenie, Mrs. Barbara Ann (John Arthur) Boone, Sr., all of Americus, GA; Ms. Anna Willis of Leslie, GA and Ms. Mattie Mae Edge of Albany, GA, and her granddaughter, Ms. Rosetta Allen of Atlanta, GA whom she raised as her own; 51 grandchildren, a host of great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, including her homecare aides: Trina Brantley, Alice Stewart and the staff of Kindred Hospice in Columbus, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and her Christian brothers and sisters also survive.
