In Appreciation
Perhaps you sang a lovely song
or said a silent prayer.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece.
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all.
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did
to console our hearts,
we thank you so much—
whatever the part.

OBITUARY

*M*other Mamie Antoinette Pleasant Campbell, the daughter of the late Mr. William M. Pleasant and the late Mrs. Alzaida Brookings Pleasant, was born in Savannah, Chatham County, Georgia on April 19, 1924.

At an early age, she joined St. Philips A.M.E. Church in Savannah, Georgia and served as President of the Junior Missionary Society, organist for the Boys' Chorus and many other activities with the church such as on the Stewardess Board and as an usher during her youth.

She attended the Public Elementary Schools of Chatham County. She continued her education at Georgia State College in Savannah, Georgia earning a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education. She later furthered her studies at Atlanta University in Atlanta, Georgia and Fort Valley State College, Fort Valley, Georgia. She also attended graduate classes at Georgia Southwestern College in Americus, Georgia.

Mamie was united in marriage on December 24, 1953, to Rev. Joseph R. Campbell. There were five children born to this union: four boys and one girl. As a Pastor's wife, she served in many activities of the church: organist, stewardess, missionary worker, and any place she was needed.

As an elementary teacher, she taught in many of the counties, where her husband was pastoring. She retired in 1984. She became a substitute teacher in the city of Americus, where her husband became Presiding Elder of Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church. She was a proud member and Mother of the church.

Mamie was also a member of many organizations: A.M.E. Ministers' Wives & Widows, Women Missionary Society of the A.M.E. Church, a Life Member of the Order of Eastern Star Chapter No. 63, Interdenominational Ministers' Wives & Widows, Life Member and past President of the Georgia Retired Teachers Association of Sumter County, past President of the Senior Dunbar Civic & Social Club and a member of the DYWYK Board.

She will be missed dearly, and all those who loved and knew her, will miss hearing her say, "Don't forget to say your prayers and to think".

She is preceded in death by her husband, Rev. Joseph R. Campbell, Sr.; two brothers, William Pleasant, Jr. and Albert M. Pleasant, Sr.; a sister, Josey Wallace; a great grandchild, Kay'von Dewayne Campbell; an aunt, Ida Davis Seneca and a son-in-law, Charles Brinson.

*God saw you were getting weary,
so He did what He thought best.
He came and stood beside and whispered, "Come and rest".
You bade no one a last farewell.
Not even a goodbye.
You were gone before we knew,
and only God knows why.*
