

On April 17, 1947, in Carrollton, Alabama, a bright star named LOVELL IVORY was born to Lily Ferguson-Ivory and Essex Ivory. His journey through life was a tapestry woven with threads of courage, love, dedication, and laughter. On August 1, 2024, this extraordinary soul departed from our midst, leaving behind a legacy that will be cherished forever.

Lovell's early years were marked by the nurturing care of his parents and the camaraderie of his siblings: James, Roy, Willie, Ellen, and Edna, all of whom predeceased him. After graduating from high school, Lovell heeded the call of duty, enlisting in the Army in 1970. He served his country with valor in the Vietnam War, receiving medals for National Defense Service, Sharpshooter (M14), and a Marksman (M-16); he also forged bonds of brotherhood and enduring experiences that shaped the man he would become.

After his service, Lovell sought the vibrant embrace of New York City. It was there, amidst the city's ceaseless pulse, that he found the love of his life, Ernestine Tucker, in 1975. Their love story was a beacon of constancy and warmth, a partnership that flourished until his final days.

Lovell's professional journey saw him as a dedicated truck driver for Chuck Full of Nuts, a coffee company in New York City. His days on the road were marked by a tireless work ethic and a deep sense of responsibility. Retirement brought Lovell to Georgia, where he channeled his energy into a new role as a school bus driver for Marion County School System in Buena Vista, Georgia. His commitment to his work was unwavering until his health began to wane.

A man of many passions, Lovell cherished traveling with his family and the thrill of mastering a BBQ grill. His love for blues music was profound, and he was known for his light-footed dancing, always bringing joy to those around him. A joker with a heart of gold, Lovell was a devoted provider and a pillar of faith, whose belief in a higher power guided him throughout his life.

Lovell was a proud Vietnam Veteran and a dedicated member of the C. B. Dowdell American Legion Post #558. Above all, he was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He leaves behind a legacy of his wife, Ernestine Tucker-Ivory, and one sister, Carolyn "Curly" Ivory; eight children: Brian Tucker, Norman Fowler, Geneva Musgrave (Tamarra), Lakeisha Ivory-Ponder, Lovell Ivory, Jr., Lachandra Ivory, Lakiya Austin (Bernard), and Nigel Austin. His love extended to his fourteen grandchildren: Tyreem, Brianna, Naeem, Zykeem, Akell, Gianni, Elian, Justin, Roderick, Anissa, Ciara, Stephon, Lucas, and Lexington, and his eight great-grandchildren: La-kye, Jayden, Mia, London, Emma, Amir, Aria and Aaliyah. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and close friends who will forever cherish his memory.

Lovell's journey was one of resilience, joy, and unwavering love. His spirit continues to shine brightly in the hearts of those who knew him. As we honor his memory, we find solace in the profound impact he had on our lives and the enduring legacy he leaves behind.

Rest in peace, Lovell Ivory, Sr. Your journey on this earth may have ended, but your spirit will live on in our hearts forever.
