

Our beloved, KENDRICK MONTRELL SWAIN, was born in Sumter County, Georgia on August 18, 1982, to the parentage of the late Alfonso Swain and Alice Swain, who survives. He is preceded in death by his grandparents: Elsie Roberts, Lily Mae Smith, and Richard Roberts.

Kendrick was educated in the public schools of Sumter County. At an early age, Kendrick joined the Antioch Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Albert Harris.

On Friday, September 17, 2021, he heard a voice we could not hear and saw a light we could not see. He transitioned from this life— to life eternal.

His life and his love will forever be remembered by his loving and devoted daughter, Ja'Kayla Floyd and his devoted son, JaQuan Floyd, both of Americus, Georgia; his loving and devoted mother, Ms. Alice Swain of Americus, Georgia; his loving devoted stepmother, Mrs. LaSondra (Larry) Milledge of Americus, Georgia; three loving brothers: Terrance Roberts, Tony Cook, both of Americus, Georgia and Derrick (Thaleigha) Swain of Austell, Georgia; three sisters: T'Keyah Swain of Warner Robins, Georgia; Alderica (Justus) Smith and Destinee Swain, both of Americus, Georgia; his aunts: Barbara Roberts, Elsie Roberts, Euphemia Roberts, all of Americus, Georgia; Sheryl Roberts of Albany, Georgia; Jacqueline Dice of Warner Robins, Georgia; Belinda Roberts-McDonald of Perry, Georgia; Doreen Swain and Cynthia Everett, both of Cobb, Georgia; his uncles: Carl Swain of Cobb, Georgia; John Roberts of McDonough, Georgia and Michael Roberts of Americus, Georgia; his god-sister, Breanna Maxwell of Americus, Georgia; a host of cousins to include: Edward "Bookie" Dice, Jr., James "Peanut" Postell, Jr. and Jarria Roberts; other relatives and sorrowing friends to include, Trina Bess and Tim Battle, both of Americus, Georgia and a devoted and dedicated nurse, Ms. Annette Hall also survives.
